Young Farmers Club Leader

10.20 per hour for 14 hours a week

To be worked on Saturdays and Sundays with occasional work on weekdays and evenings.

This is the perfect role for someone who is passionate about farming and gardening and will enjoy the challenge of working with young people & animals.

The Farm has been established since 1982 and with a large volunteer team, it aims to be a focus for community activity, primarily in the three London Boroughs of Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge and Havering.

Our staff team are friendly, committed, resourceful people and we are looking for a person with similar qualities. We are looking for someone who has an active interest in farming, gardening and the natural environment and has the ability to work with children of mixed abilities.

The post holder will be responsible for running Wellgate Farm's Young Farmer's Club. They will induct new members and run sessions on Saturdays and Sundays for the group. We are looking for someone who can teach young people how to care for our animals and look after our gardens; someone who can enthuse the young people to work together as teams to carry out tasks and on their own to achieve our in house Young Farmer achievement awards.

Duties will include managing enquiries about membership and inducting new members. Supervising and ensuring the safety of the Saturday and Sunday club sessions including Duke of Edinburgh volunteers. Keeping track of register, attendance and Club subscriptions/payments. Running events and activities for the club members including away trips. The post holder will also be expected to maintain the farm as a safe and welcoming place for visiting members of public on weekends and help to run weekend farm events during the year.

The post holder will be willing to undertake appropriate training, drive farm vehicles and any other duties consistent with the running of the Farm.

Recruitment will be subject to the outcome of an enhanced DBS check.
